

150# PVC Vanstone flanged ANSI ports for easy installation in new or existing piping setups.

FRP manway cover standard. Robust 2" acrylic manway cover option available.

Patented TriFlow header system CFD designed for consistent flow through the media bed, dramatically reducing head loss compared to existing filters on the market. Providing clearer water and energy savings for your customers.

"Shower head" free diverters utilize the shell surface for even water distribution and negate the need for replacing clogged heads.

Interior reinforcement banding for increased strength and stability in stacking applications

Robust internals are built to last. Making broken ABS laterals obsolete.